The price of this paper is $1.00 per year. If you like it send us your subscription and help us to continue our work for the race.

IN YOUR HAPPINESS, remember the poor unfortunate about you. Spread the Christmas tidings.

EVERY MAN AND WOMAN who is able should give something to the STAR'S "Empty Stocking Fund." Who will head the list?

FOR SOME REASON, the attorney general, who lives in Oklahoma City, seems to be very much interested in the welfare of Tulsa lately.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S "Defense Program," as the fellow who helps to foot the bill, is a strong argument in favor of Bryan's Peace Policy.

THE LOCAL BUSINESS LEAGUE will give a "Smoker" in the near future for the benefit of its members and their friends. This is in line with the League motto: "Get Together."

THE FELLOW WHO'S UP TODAY, may be DOWN tomorrow. If these who are UP would remember this at all times, those who are DOWN would have a much better chance in life.

GRAND JURIES are becoming very common in Oklahoma, and their habits are about the same wherever they are found. But it is a very notable fact that they are all quiet on the "Guardianship Graft" which is the most odious system of corruption in the state. This reminds us very forcibly of the fellow "straining at a gnat and swallowing a camel."

THE SALVATION OF THE RACE lies along the pathway of industry. We can not hope to permanently succeed as a race without employment for our boys and girls. This can not be accomplished on any large scale without co-operation. We would have more race enterprises if we had more individuals of the race to encourage those we have.

MRS. GALT HAS DOUBLE

This picture is not that of Mrs. Norman Galt, the president's fiancée, but that of Mrs. S. Hubert Dent, wife of the Alabama congressman. The likeness is so striking that Mrs. Dent is having trouble in convincing Washingtonians who think they recognize her on the street that she is not Mrs. Galt. One of the most experienced newspaper women in Washington, one who has a wide acquaintance, and has seen Mrs. Galt many times, followed Mrs. Dent for two hours on a shopping expedition thinking that she was getting a story about Mrs. Galt's purchases, only to be disappointed at the end of her long walk. The photographer who made the picture also was quite positive that it was she, and was unwillingly convinced after he had made several pictures.

He Saved His Pennies.

Bellefontaine, O.—More than $100 in pennies, the savings of one year, were deposited in a bank here recently by a Bellefontaine man. He took the pennies to the bank in two tin cans which he had used to hold them during the time he was saving.
